

Liars Night 2018

You see tendrils of fog grasping at your window at night. You hear a distant cackle. You spy restless shadows out of the corner of your eye. It can only mean one thing... HAPPY LIARS NIGHT, ADVENTURERS! Throughout October 2018, the Adventurers League is celebrating a spooky fall festival filled with chilling encounters and thrilling rewards.

Earn Candy Corn

For every hour of Adventurers League play October 1-31, 2018, as a player or a Dungeon Master, you earn 1 candy corn. You can also earn candy corn via other Liars Night activities announced throughout the month, so keep an eye on www.dndadventurersleague.org. Candy corn is tied to you—the player—and any rewards earned with candy corn are individually assigned to your characters.

Defeat Wandering Monsters

Beginning the second week of October, keep a watchful eye for wandering monsters with Liars Night flair, posted on our website. DMs can insert these beasts into any adventure. They do not award additional checkpoints, but once defeated, they explode in a hail of candy corn.

Trade with the Kernel

Some call him the Candy King, others call him the Sugar Fiend, but most know him as The Kernel. Hidden in the darkest alley, behind an innocent pile of forgotten refuse, atop a hoard of Liars Night sweets, you will find a cranium rat impossible to mistake for anyone but the Kernel. The Kernel will trade your candy corn in exchange for his Liars Night loot.

The Kernel's Wares

Candy Corn Cost	Reward
12	This reward is an UNLOCK, which costs 2 TCP of Tier 1 or higher: Dread Helm (Liars Night 2018 Edition) Wondrous item, common This fearsome carved jack-o-lantern fits over your head. It makes your eyes glow yellow while you wear it.
12	This reward is an UNLOCK, which costs 2 TCP of Tier 1 or higher: Pipe of Smoke Monsters (Liars Night 2018 Edition) Wondrous item, common While smoking this pipe, you can use an action to exhale a puff of smoke that takes the form of a single creature. The creature must be one of the Wandering Monsters you defeated this holiday. The form must be small enough to fit in a 1-foot-cube and loses its shape after a few seconds, becoming an ordinary puff of smoke.
24	This reward is an UNLOCK, which costs 8 TCP of Tier 1 or higher: Ghost Sheet Wondrous item, uncommon This sheet appears to be plain white cotton cloth with two eyeholes cut into it. When you wear the sheet over your head, you appear to be incorporeal. Physical interaction reveals this to be an illusion.
36	Disposable Witch's Broom Wondrous item, common This cheaply made wooden broom acts as a broom of flying, except its command word activates this broom only once and for up to 10 minutes. Afterward, the broom loses all magical properties, and the bristles start to fall off.
48	This reward is an UNLOCK, which costs 16 TCP of Tier 1 or higher: Bag of Tricks or Treats Wondrous item, uncommon This ordinary bag, made from orange and black striped cloth, appears empty. Reaching inside the bag, however, reveals the presence of crinkly wrapped candies. The bag otherwise acts as a gray bag of tricks except the following numbers on the d8 table are replaced and summon creatures hostile toward you: 5: Dretch / 6: Quasit / 7: Imp / 8: Hell Hound
60	Marzipan the Skeletal Warhorse Mount This mount is all bloodstained bone speckled with sundried bits of flesh. The Kernel can neither confirm nor deny this horse is linked to the recent graverobbery of Lord Hultmark's beloved warhorse Marzipan. Marzipan is a warhorse with immunity to poison damage and the exhaustion and poisoned conditions; she is vulnerable to bludgeoning damage. If killed, Marzipan can be summoned via find steed, find greater steed, or animate dead.
